

Melinda Tumlinson Fiebig is Office Manager for Voelker Welding and Construction, and Executive Assistant and Interior Designer for Voelker Custom Homes. Ms. Fiebig has been with Voelker Welding and Construction since 1978. Being a graduate of Manor High School, as well as her husband, David, she has a strong personal commitment to the school district and community of Manor.

She has been personally involved with the Manor Independent School District and extra-circular activities for several years. Ms. Fiebig has been a Manor 4-H Leader for 12 years, and served as Treasurer for the Manor Athletic Booster Club for 8 years. As a parent of Alyson Fiebig, graduate of Manor High School Class of 2001 and graduate of Stephen F. Austin State University, 2006; Adam Fiebig, graduate of Manor High School Class of 2003, and graduate of San Diego Golf Academy, 2005; and Andrew Fiebig, currently a student at Manor Middle School, she has been an active parent volunteer at all levels of education, elementary, middle school and high schools, in the Manor district.

In addition to her full time job, Ms. Fiebig has put in countless hours as a volunteer for several community organizations. She is a founding member of the Manor Chamber of Commerce, serving as President in 2007, and Treasurer in 2006. She was also in charge of the successful First Annual Manor Chip Festival held last spring, as well as other fund raising events.

Ms. Fiebig is serving as Treasurer of the Travis County Show for 2007/2008. She has been an active volunteer for the Star of Texas Fair and Rodeo for the past 20 years and served as Vice President of the Pappa Cluck Buyers Group for 15 years.

She and her family are also active members of the First Baptist Church Pflugerville.

In all that Ms. Fiebig participates in, she brings common sense, hard work and dedication for a job well done.
